

Altea Gallery
35 St George Street
W1S 2FN, London
United Kingdom

www.alteagallery.com

info@alteagallery.com
+44 (0) 20 7491 0010

AN UNUSUAL BALLOON VIEW OF BRIGHTON IN THE 1840S

£650.00

Brighton. View taken in balloon. 1846. Brighton. Vue prise en ballon. 1846.

Cartographer ARNOUT, Jules.

Date 1756

Stock #: 23159

Publication: London: Gambart, Junin & Co, 1846. Tinted lithograph with added colour. Printed area 335 x 450mm. Artist's blind stamp lower right.

Condition: A good example.

DESCRIPTION:

An uncommon view of Brighton drawn and lithographed by Jules Arnout for his 'Aerial Excursions'. Taken from above the sea, it shows the seafront from Brunswick Town to Sussex Square. Features include the Royal Pavilion, St Peter's Church and, in fields to the north, the London Road Viaduct, built for the new railway and opened only five years before.. In the sky is a hot-air balloon.