

Altea Gallery
35 St George Street
W1S 2FN, London
United Kingdom

www.alteagallery.com

info@alteagallery.com
+44 (0) 20 7491 0010

A SCARCE 17TH CENTURY PROSPECT OF CASTIGLIONE TORINESE IN SUPERB COLOUR

£600.00

Castiglionis Oppidum.

Cartographer	BLAEU, Johannes.
Date	1682
Stock #:	23270
Publication:	Amsterdam: Heirs of Johannes Blaeu, 1682.
Fine original colour with gold highlights. 535 x 610mm.
Condition:	A little toning of paper in the margins.

DESCRIPTION:

A prospect of Castiglione Torinese in Piedmont from the Po River, dominated by a baroque palace with ornamental gardens and orchards within its walls.

The map was published in the fourth volume of Johannes Blaeu's Townbooks of Italy, 'Pedemontium Florentissimum Italiae Latus', published after his death. Later editions were published by Moetjens, Mortier & Alberts.

The colour is particularly fine, with the town armorial accentuated with gold.