A 17TH CENTURY MAP OF CENTRAL MEXICO

£450.00

Nova Hispania et Nova Galicia.

Cartographer BLAEU, Willem Janszoon.

Date 1662

Stock #: 22723

Publication: Amsterdam, Joan Blaeu, 1662, Latin text edition. Original colour. 385 x 500mm.

Condition: A good example.

DESCRIPTION:

A detailed map of central Mexico, with Mexico City still situated on a lake, Guadalajara and Puebla (Angelorum Civitas). The sites of gold and silver mines are marked with diamonds. The title cartouche is particularly decorative and the key cartouche features cherubs and armadillos.

This example was published in the monumental 'Atlas Major'.
