

Altea Gallery
35 St George Street
W1S 2FN, London
United Kingdom

www.alteagallery.com

info@alteagallery.com
+44 (0) 20 7491 0010

ATLAS TITLE PAGE BY A DUTCH OLD MASTER ETCHER

£550.00

Atlas Novus ad Usus Serenissimi Burgundiae Ducis. Atlas Francois...

Cartographer	HOOGHE, Romeyn de.
Date	1720
Stock #:	13678
Publication:	Amsterdam: Jean Covens & Cornelle Mortier, c.1720. 495 x 290mm.
Condition:	A good example.

DESCRIPTION:

An allegorical title page by Romeyn de Hooghe, one of the foremost artist/etchers of the period, known for his wall maps and propaganda prints supporting William of Orange after England's 'Glorious Revolution', including the monumental sea charts for Pierre Mortier's 'Neptune François'. The upper section shows allegorical figures of the Continents making obeisance to a female France; the lower section has four figures representing rivers.