

Altea Gallery
35 St George Street
W1S 2FN, London
United Kingdom

www.alteagallery.com

info@alteagallery.com
+44 (0) 20 7491 0010

18TH CENTURY VIEW OF WESTMINSTER FROM THE THAMES

£1,100.00

View of Westminster Bridge Including Westminster Hall and the Abbey.

Cartographer	FARINGTON, Joseph.
Date	1790
Stock #:	11595
Publication:	London, W. Byrne, 1790. Coloured aquatint with soft ground etching, unfinished proof. 460 x 670mm.
Condition:	Some paper toning, slight wear.

DESCRIPTION:

A fine aquatint etched by Joseph Constantine Stadler after Joseph Farington. Taken from water level, it shows the Thames Watermen transporting cargo and passengers along the river.

This example predates its official publication: not only does it lack the publication line but the sky has not been completely aquatinted.