

Altea Gallery
35 St George Street
W1S 2FN, London
United Kingdom

www.alteagallery.com

info@alteagallery.com
+44 (0) 20 7491 0010

A MAP OF GREECE AT THE TIME OF DEMOSTHENES

£240.00

Antient Greece, designed for a Translation of Demosthenes.

Cartographer	Anonymous.
Date	1757
Stock #:	21218
Publication:	London: A. Millar, 1757. Coloured. 405 x 440mm.
Condition:	Binding folds flattened with repairs.

DESCRIPTION:

A map of Ancient Greece with the Aegean and western Turkey, drawn to accompany 'The Orations of Demosthenes', translated by Philip Francis.

Demosthenes (384-322 BC) was one of the greatest Athenian orators. He strove against the decline of Athens in the face of Macedonia expansion under Philip II and his son Alexander the Great.