

Altea Gallery
35 St George Street
W1S 2FN, London
United Kingdom

www.alteagallery.com

info@alteagallery.com
+44 (0) 20 7491 0010

EARLY 19TH CENTURY PLAN SHOWING THE DEFENCES OF GENOA

£120.00

Genoa. Engrav'd for Luffman's Select Plans. Genoa, a fine City & Port in the Gulph of the same name in the Mediterranean Sea. Lat, 44,30 N. Long 8,51 East from London.

Cartographer LUFFMAN, John.

Date 1801

Stock #: 13158

Publication: London: Luffman, 1801. 135 x 160mm.

Condition: Paper lightly toned.

DESCRIPTION:

Plan of Genoa's harbour, published in Luffman's 'Select Plans of the Principal Cities, Harbours, Forts &c. in the World'. The Ligurian Republic had been a French Protectorate since 1797 and was to be annexed in 1805: Tolstoy's 'War and Peace' starts with the sentence: 'Well, Prince, so Genoa and Lucca are now just family estates of the Buonapartes'.