

Altea Gallery
35 St George Street
W1S 2FN, London
United Kingdom

www.alteagallery.com

info@alteagallery.com
+44 (0) 20 7491 0010

A RARE MAP OF THE KINGDOM OF NAPLES

£680.00

Le Royaume de Naples Divisé en ses Douze Provinces ou sont marquez tous les Archevechez et Evechez, Les Fiefs Royaux, les Sieges des Audiences Royales, les Principautez, les Duchez, Marquisats, et Comtez...

Cartographer	NOLIN, Jean Baptiste.
Date	1705
Stock #:	23637
Publication:	Paris, c.1705. Original colour. 570 x 475mm.
Condition:	A good example.

DESCRIPTION:

An early 18th century old map of Italy south of Rome, with a title cartouche of armorials held aloft by a merman, and a seashell for the key, On the left is an extensive engraved text description of the state, The map was first published with the engraved date of 1702: here the last digit has been removed. The dedication is to Philip V, grandson of Louis XIV, whose succession to the thrones of Spain, Naples and Sicily in 1700 sparked the War of the Spanish Succession.