EARLY 19TH CENTURY PLAN OF MILAN

£1,250.00

Città di Milano.

Cartographer	PINCHETTI, Giacomo.
Date	1808
Stock #:	22296
Publication:	Milan, 1808. Dissected and laid on linen as issued, total 810 x 575mm.
Condition:	Linen replaced.

DESCRIPTION:

A scarce and detailed plan of Milan, engraved by Giuseppe Caniani, with extensive keys above and below the map.

It was first published in 1801, when Milan was capital of Napoleon Bonaparte's Cisalpine Republic. By the time this edition was issued Napoleon had dropped any pretence of republicanism and had made himself monarch of the Kingdom of Italy.
