

Altea Gallery
35 St George Street
W1S 2FN, London
United Kingdom

www.alteagallery.com

info@alteagallery.com
+44 (0) 20 7491 0010

A 18TH CENTURY TWO-SHEET MAP OF ANCIENT GREECE

£450.00

Graeciae Antiquae Designatio Nova.

Cartographer SEUTTER, Matthaus.

Date 1760

Stock #: 22403

Publication: Augsburg: Tobias Conrad Lotter, c.1750.

Original body colour. Two sheets, each 500 x 585mm.

Condition: Minor repairs to wide margins.

DESCRIPTION:

A fine example of a two-sheet map of Ancient Greece and the islands of the Aegean, divided into the kingdoms. The decorative title cartouche illustrates Greek culture, including an image of the Colossus of Rhodes. This pair of maps was first published by Seutter c.1720; this example was published by his son-in-law and successor Tobias Lotter.