

Altea Gallery
35 St George Street
W1S 2FN, London
United Kingdom

www.alteagallery.com

info@alteagallery.com
+44 (0) 20 7491 0010

18TH CENTURY PROSPECT OF MILAN WITH FINE ALLEGORICAL DETAIL

£900.00

Mediolanum. Mayland.

Cartographer WERNER, Friedrich Bernhard.

Date 1735

Stock #: 21534

Publication: Augsburg: Martin Engelbrecht, c.1735.

Coloured etching, 205 x 300mm.

Condition: A good example.

DESCRIPTION:

A prospect of Milan showing the defensive walls, with extensive keys in Italian and German. In a rococo cartouche are the arms of the Visconti family and Milan, featuring the biscone, the snake eating a child. The view was drawn by Werner and etched by J.G. Ringle.